CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF THE SECOND ARMY CORPS ASSOCIATION.

Adopted December 19, 1892; Revised October 10, 1894.

CONSTITUTION.

Name.

The Second Army Corps Association of the District of Columbia.

Objects.

The objects of this association shall be the gathering, preservation and publication of historical material concerning the Second Corps, the perpetuation of the associations of the war for the preservation of the Union, the cultivation of fraternal relations among its members and their intellectual improvement and social enjoyment.

Non-Political Character.

The association shall be non-political and shall take no part in partisan politics. Questions of a partisan political character shall not be discussed or considered in its meetings.

Active Membership.

Any man who rendered military service, either as a commissioned officer, or, enlisted man, in the Second Army Corps, during the late civil war, and was honorably discharged, and who bears a good character and reputation, shall be eligible to membership in this association.

Applications for Membership.

Every application for membership in this association shall be in writing, shall state the applicant's name in full, his age, residence, occupation, and military history, and shall be accompanied by the admission fee of two dollars. It shall be read and referred to a committee of investigation, which shall report thereon favorably or unfavorably; but any applicant may withdraw his application from the committee, in which case, the report of the committee shall be, application withdrawn. Every applicant shall be recommended in writing by at least two members of the association in good standing.

Officers.

The officers of the association shall be a President, three Vice-Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, a Sergeant-at-Arms, and an Executive Committee, to consist of the officers and five other persons, the President of the association to be ex-officio chairman of the Committee.

Duties and Election.

The officers shall perform the duties usually pertaining to such positions, and, including the members of the Executive Committee, shall be elected by ballot after nomination.

Term.

The term of service of the officers shall be one year, or until their successors are elected and qualified, and no officer, excepting the Secretary and Treasurer, shall serve two consecutive terms in the same office.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1. The association having been duly organized on the 16th day of December, 1892, and entitled "The Second Army Corps Association of the District of Columbia," hereby adopts the following by-laws for the government and guidance of its members.

ARTICLE II.

Meetings and Quorum.

SECTION 1. The regular meetings of the association shall be held on the second Wednesday of each month (unless otherwise ordered), at 7.30 p. m., except June, July, August and September.

SECTION 2. The President may, at his discretion, or when requested by five comrades in good standing, call a special meeting, provided such request is in writing and sets forth explicitly the object for which the meeting is desired; and, provided, no other business than that for which it is called, shall be transacted, nor any appropriation of funds be made, unless contemplated in the call.

SECTION 3. Nine members in good standing shall constitute a quorum at any meeting.

ARTICLE III.

Membership, Fees, Dues, Applications, Reinstatement, Balloting.

SECTION 1. The admission fee shall be two dollars, except that non-resident members shall not be required to pay such admission-fee, the payment of the annual dues being sufficient to constitute such comrades as members.

SECTION 2. The sons of members of the association in good standing, not under twenty-one years of age, may be elected as associate members upon payment of the admission-fee, but such members shall not be entitled to vote nor be eligible for election to office, nor shall they be subject to the payment of dues.

SECTION 3. Distinguished men, whether in military, naval, or civil life, may be elected as honorary members by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any regular meeting, and such members shall not be required to pay admission-fee nor dues.

SECTION 4. The dues payable by each active member shall be one dollar per annum, in advance.

SECTION 5. All comrades in arrears in payment of dues for twelve months may be dropped from the rolls on a majority vote.

SECTION 6. A comrade having been dropped for non-payment of dues, may be reinstated upon payment of his arrearages, by a majority vote of comrades present and voting at the meeting when application for such reinstatement is made.

SECTION 7. The admission and reinstatement fees must be paid before an applicant is received into membership.

SECTION 8. Each application for membership, after it is read by the Secretary, will be referred by the President to a committee of three, to be appointed by the President, for investigation and report; and such report, before being received by the association must be signed by a majority of said committee.

SECTION 9. Members shall be chosen by ballot and three unfavorable ballots shall reject.

ARTICLE IV.

Election of Officers, Committees, Duties.

SECTION 1. The officers of the association shall be elected annually at the regular meeting in January.

SECTION 2. The Committee on By-Laws shall consist of the Secretary and two other comrades, to be appointed annually by the President at the regular meeting in February, to which shall be referred to report all proposed amendments to the By-Laws.

SECTION 3. The Executive Committee shall consist of the officers and five other comrades, the President of the association to be ex-officio chairman of the committee. It shall consider and report upon such matters affecting the interests and welfare of the association as may be referred to it. This committee may also present such other matters as may appear to be for the best interests of the association. It shall have sole charge of any entertainment devised by the association.

SECTION 4. The Committee on Audit shall consist of three comrades to be appointed annually by the President at the regular meeting in February. This committee shall thoroughly examine the books, vouchers and accounts of the Treasurer and certify to their condition annually. The Treasurer shall submit his books, accounts and vouchers, together with his report, to the committee for audit at least three days prior to the annual meeting in January, and the committee shall indorse its action upon such report prior to its presentation to the association by the Treasurer, and may make such suggestions to the association as may be deemed proper for the better conduct of the business of the Treasurer.

ARTICLE V.

Appropriations, Disbursements.

SECTION 1. All money belonging to the association shall be paid out by the Treasurer on requisitions drawn and signed by the Secretary and approved by the President.

SECTION 2. Appropriations for any purpose shall be made only at regular meetings of the association and on a majority vote of the members present and voting; or at special meetings when the specified business considered shall require an appropriation.

ARTICLE VI.

Rules of Order.

SECTION 1. The rules of order shall be those prescribed in "Cushing's Manual of Parliamentary Law and Practice."

ARTICLE VII.

Amendments.

SECTION 1. These by-laws may be amended,— 1st by a two-thirds vote of all members present and voting at a regular meeting of the association; 2nd, a proposition to amend must be in writing and shall specify the particular portion sought to be amended; 3d, such proposition shall then be referred without debate to the Committee on By-Laws, for report at the next regular meeting, or, at the call of the President.
